

Planned 2018/19 S+SNZ Stakeholder Engagement – Council/Board

Organisation (and Position)	Area of Engagement	Prime Reason	Frequency	Primary Responsibility Within S+SNZ
Minister for Land Information	ASaTS, land titles, surveying, geospatial, hydrography, resilience – sector related	Advocate for profession	Minimum biannually	Council / Board supported by CEO
Minister of Housing and Urban Development	Role of surveying profession from inception to delivery of housing	Raise awareness of sector capacity	As required	Council / Board supported by CEO
Chief Executive, LINZ	ASaTS, land titles, surveying, hydrography, resilience	Lead professional awareness	Biannually	Board Council / Board supported by CEO
Chief Executive, Ministry of Housing and Urban Development	Housing crisis	Raise awareness of sector capacity	Biannually (from October)	Board Council / Board supported by CEO
Cadastral Surveyors Licensing Board, Chair	Cadastral regulations and sector support	Enhance partnership	Biannually	Board Council / Board supported by CEO
FIG	Support international professional body	Lead and raise awareness of international developments	Annually with in-between communication as required	President, Council, YP representatives and CEO
S+SNZ Membership (Branches)	Branch and organisational matters	Add value to membership	Biennially as a minimum	Council / Board representatives
S+SNZ (Streams)	Stream and professional matters	Add value to membership	Biannual Council meetings	Council
S+SNZ Membership	Stakeholder issues	Add value to membership	As required	Council / Board supported by CEO