

Senior Licensed Cadastral Surveyor – ownership potential

The Lands and Survey Group is a well-established, multi-disciplined surveying, planning and engineering company. We provide clients with a personalised and professional service; operating from Auckland to Northland.

Lands and Survey's Auckland office has recently restructured, including appointment of a new General Manager and other senior staff. The business is about to embark on an exciting growth strategy and wants to take industry stars along for the ride.

With a future focus on growth and productivity, Lands and Survey are looking for an experienced Senior Licensed Cadastral Surveyor to deliver quality survey functions to their clients, based in Auckland. Interested?

About the opportunity

Reporting to the General Manager, and as a part of the senior management team, the Lands and Survey Senior Licensed Cadastral Surveyor takes operational leadership of numerous projects and client relationships. In doing this, the Senior Licensed Cadastral Surveyor will:

- Ensure Lands and Survey clients are provided with quality survey functions.
- Induct, train and manage new staff as the team grows
- Ensure cadastral surveys are completed as requested in an efficient and professional manner; and to the standard expected by the industry governing body
- Ensure all resource management and engineering design work is completed in an efficient and professional manner
- Assess client needs & maintaining developed processes that meet those needs.
- Work as part of the wider Lands and Survey senior management team
- Potential for future ownership / equity

About you

To be successful in this role, you will ideally have a minimum of 8 years' experience preferably on varied projects with some leadership responsibilities. You will also hold a degree or diploma in Surveying or a related field; and are capable of preparing full Cadastral Survey Datasets ready for submission to LINZ. Other key requirements are that you have:

- Experience working with relevant software
- A strong working knowledge of managing conditions of subdivision consents
- Exceptional communication skills with the ability to work unsupervised and as part of a team; whilst maintaining the respect of clients and peers

People will describe you as a self-starter, positive, friendly, can-do person with the ability to think on your feet and make fast decisions with a hands-on approach. As someone who enjoys autonomy you will have a natural desire to proactively achieve success for a business and exceed expectations in delivering results. Sound like you?

If you have the relevant experience and are looking to challenge yourself and build your career with a supportive company, please forward your application to derek@landsandsurvey.co.nz
