

Licensed Cadastral Surveyor or Experienced Survey Technician

Survplanz Ltd is a small survey consultancy team practice based in East Tamaki, Auckland. we are looking for either a Licensed Cadastral Surveyor or an Experienced Survey Technician, who is a self-motivated and passionate Surveyor to join our team in Auckland.

Skills and experience

- At least 3 years' post-qualification experience related to cadastral surveying.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Ability to deliver efficient and accurate surveying services across a various range of projects.
- Competence operating GPS and robotic total station equipment
- Advanced knowledge of 12D and e-survey dataset lodgement
- A positive, friendly, can-do attitude; be able to think on your feet and make fast decisions with a hands-on approach.
- Wanting to take a leadership and business development role.
- Ability to provide the resource consent application would be advantageous.

On Offer:

- Competitive salary package depends on your level of experience
- Opportunities for training and development in a growing business
- We provide excellent support, progression, and training and highly value an individual with the right attitude.

How to Apply

Email your CV along with a covering letter to Mark at mark@survplanz.co.nz

All applications and discussions will be treated in strictest confidence. Only applicants with the right to work in NZ will be considered.