

Licensed Cadastral Surveyor

Are you an experienced or licensed Cadastral Surveyor looking to progress your career whilst living in an outstanding lifestyle environment?

Cheal is an award-winning, multi-disciplinary organisation with six offices across the Central North Island offering Geotechnical, Civil and Structural Engineering, Surveying, 3D Laser Scanning, Precision Monitoring and Resource Management Planning. We seek a Licensed Cadastral Surveyor to join our Ruapehu team, based out of either our Ohakune or Taumarunui offices. This position is suited to someone who is able to work autonomously yet play an important role within our wider Surveying team.

Cheal offers interesting and diverse projects, a supportive work environment, career progression and in our view, exceptional work-life balance (think skiing, hiking, biking, fishing, hunting, zero traffic, affordable property and a real sense of community). This is a key opportunity for a long-term association with a top level consultancy that prides itself on forward thinking and the use of modern technology.

The ideal candidate will possess;

- Bachelor of Surveying
- Current CSLB Annual Practising Certificate would be an advantage
- Advanced skills in 12D and/or AutoCAD
- Knowledge of and interaction with the RMA and Engineering fields
- Excellent written communication skills
- Exceptional client management skills

With Land Development experiencing significant growth throughout the region, Cheal provides the perfect opportunity for those of you who seek a high quality lifestyle while progressing and growing your career.

The Cheal culture is one of teamwork and exceptional communication with a commitment to quality. Suitable applicants will be able to demonstrate how they fit this description.

Full, New Zealand driving licence and experience in driving a manual transmission 4WD utility vehicle essential.
