Calling for Members' Feedback - Urban Development Authorities Consultation

NZIS is preparing a submission on the Government's proposals for new legislation that would allow urban development projects of national or local significance to be built in a quicker timeframe. The government wants to establish a tool-kit of enabling powers that could be used to streamline and speed up large-scale projects that are already within urban areas, or sufficiently close to an urban area that it is likely to service that area in the future. An MBIE discussion document and accompanying regulatory impact statement is available here.

If you have any feedback you'd like included in our submission, please email it to nzis@surveyors.org.nz by 22 April 2017.

REGULAR FEATURES

Recent Case-Note Summaries

This month we report on seven court decisions covering diverse situations associated with subdivision, development and land use activities from around the country:

- A successful appeal against refusal by Auckland Transport to allow development of a site at Henderson that was partly affected by a designation for road widening;
- A High Court case relating to allocation of water in the Manawatu – Whanganui catchments for hydro-electricity generation;

- An application for enforcement orders by Auckland Council against the owner of a property at Avondale who had cleared vegetation, undertaken earthworks and adversely affected land stability and stream drainage;
  - An appeal about potential re-development of a Cat. 1 Historic place – Erskine College at Island Bay, Wellington for the purpose of establishment of a Special Housing Area;
  - An appeal by Federated Farmers against award of costs against New Plymouth D.C. on an appeal by NZ Royal Forest & Bird Protection Society about omission of protection for outstanding natural areas in its district plan;
  - An unsuccessful appeal against grant of consent for construction of a walking and cycling path on the Auckland Harbour Bridge known as the Skypath;
  - An unsuccessful appeal by Eastbourne residents against a plan change introduced by Hutt City Council intended to increase protection for specific trees in the district plan.
