

Back To Business

With our very successful conference and awards evening behind us for 2021, we're now on the countdown to our next important events. These include the AGM and the Stakeholder's Workshop in November and, a little later in the year, the launch of the Emerging Leader's Programme and early work on a pilot for our new Certification programme.

Also, coming up in October, are the next round of Professional Examinations and I wish all the candidates the very best of luck with these career-changing exams. I know a lot of hard graft goes into preparing the required projects!

In July we called for entries to the newly revised Spatial Excellence Awards and it has been very gratifying to see such a high level of interest after a 2 year hiatus. Clearly, these awards are important to the sector. Sadly, COVID-19 restrictions have meant that we can't host our planned cocktail function to announce the winners as planned, however this will be held in early 2022.

2021 PROFESSIONAL EXCELLENCE AWARDS

Thank you to everyone who took time to enter the Spatial Excellence Awards. Judging has now been completed and we will be announcing the finalists shortly. The cocktail function announcing the winners in November has been postponed due to the changing COVID-19 levels and numbers allowed at venues. This event is now planned for early 2022.

We will keep you informed of progress toward this exciting event in early next year.

NEW EMERGING LEADER'S PROGRAMME

An invitation has gone out for young professionals to get involved in the new S+SNZ Emerging Leader's Programme. Professional development of the young people who will be our industry leaders in the years ahead, is one of the priorities of Survey and Spatial NZ. Read more and apply to get involved.

DIVERSITY INDEX 2021

The goal of 1000 responses was reached and thanks to everyone who took part in the recent survey. The results will help us to understand the current state of diversity and inclusion across our workforce in Australia and NZ. More information.

2021 ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

The Final Notice of the AGM being live-streamed at 2pm, 4 November along with other relevant documents are now available on the Governance page. The AGM will be preceded by a Stakeholder's Workshop.
